

Mississippi HIV Group Home Burglarized

May 24, 2012

Grace House, a nonprofit group home for people with HIV/AIDS in Jackson, Mississippi, was broken into on May 19, WLBT reports. The burglars made off with an estimated $1,000 to $5,000 worth of canned food and other goods that had been donated to the organization. Local police are investigating the theft and advising the facility on how to avoid future incidents.
