Ukraine to Produce Antiretrovirals in 2 Years

December 27, 2011

The Ukrainian pharmaceutical industry is gearing up to manufacture antiretroviral drugs for people with HIV/AIDS within two years, Ukrinform reports. An interdepartmental group in Ukraine's Health Ministry has been set up to ensure that the project goes forward; specifically the group will help deal with legislative issues, assure quality control and determine what drugs to manufacture and in what quantities.
