February 13, 2013

Wednesday, February 13, is International Condom Day, an informal annual awareness day focusing on safer sex. The date of the event coincides with St. Valentine's Day, which is February 14. In honor of this event, AIDS Healthcare Foundation (AHF) is hosting or supporting condom distribution and awareness-raising activities in 25 countries. Most of the activities will feature "Condom Flash Mobs" distributing AHF's LOVE-branded condoms.
